EMCO UnLock IT key features: - Unlock Processes - Remove locked files and folders - Kill locked processes - List recent locked files ...THE HORROR! THE HORROR! The Washington Post is reporting that, despite the current kerfuffle over Hillary's health, at some point, Hillary will die. And not long after that, this coming March, comes the first night of the presidential debates. During that debate, Hillary will be wearing one of those "It's So Hot!" black clingy dresses with the crotch cut out. And then what will happen? Her insides will burst forth, like in that 80's film Murder By Death, where Judy Geeson gets her period in the middle of a big game of tennis. And then, as her body is writhing in pain from the menstrual blood leaking out of her and her body starts to sink into the court, her head will twist from side to side and she will say to Bill, "It's your turn," and then she will walk off the court and into the sunset. If, like me, you are a Clinton supporter, this will just be a deep disappointment. For Hillary to die, not only will my faith in her campaign die with her, but I will at some point also have to find a way to accept my own death, which will then turn my life into eternal night. But this is a reality check. The Democrats have no chance of beating Trump, and Hillary is, herself, toxic to the psyche of Democrats who see Hillary for what she is: a corrupt politician, a woman without morals, a liar, a bully. Americans have had enough of the Clintons, and Trump has become the new personification of the American Dream. The DNC is controlled by Establishment Democrats who want to save Clinton. The Establishment is a force multiplier. When Republicans take control of the White House, congress, and the Supreme Court, they're not going to want anything to do with the former New York governor who drove the country off a cliff in the 1990's, for example. Hillary and Bill Clinton are very charming. I grant you that. However, they are neither squeaky clean nor do they have any positive attributes b7e8fd5c8
